The Central Tobacco Warsho W.N. EDWARDS & CO. Prop To the Tobacco trade of Kentucky and

We respectfully desire to announce the formation this day of a partnership by us, for conducting a tobacco warehouse business in the city of Louisville, Ky. Our firm name will be W. S. Edwards & Co., and the firm will consist of W. S. Edwards, I. P. Barnard, and R. W. Edwards. Our Messrs. Edwards have been for the last seven years conducting a warehouse business in Louisville, and feel confident of their ability to take care of the interests of our patrons. Our Mr. I. P. Barnard has been for a number of years a large buyer of tobacco for, and a heavy shipper to, this market. We have in course of erection on Main Street, between 10th and 11th, one of the largest and most commodi ous warehouses in the city of Louis-ville, capable of holding a large amount of tobacco. We are sole proprietors and owners and are building it at heavy expense to ourselves in order to meet the large prospec-tive of our trade. It will be well lighted and provided with all modern conveniences necessary to the staring and prompt handling of to-ments for the receiving and selling of any tobacco consigned us. Our financial arrangements are uch, that we will be able at all times to take care of the interests of bacco; it will be completed early in the present Fall. We have opened an office at 1013 Main Street, in the building abjoining our warehouse, for the transaction of any business in our line and have made full arrange-

We, in behalf of the Messrs. Edwards, say to their old friends and customers who have so kindly given them their influence and trade in the past, that we extend to them our cordial thanks hoping they will continue to patronize us and we promise to be ready and at all times willing to attend to their interests personally Soliciting consignments from all ections.

We remain very respectfully, 2t W. S. EDWARDS & Co. Louisville, September 21, 1885.
